Open Call for Volunteers: Join RIDE-AFRICA in Transforming Lives in the Tooro Region

Dear Prospective Volunteer,

RIDE-AFRICA (Human Rights and Democracy Link Africa) is inviting passionate and qualified young professionals to apply for a volunteer position to support our mission of promoting and protecting the rights of vulnerable communities in Tooro Region, Western- Uganda.

We are looking for a dedicated Monitoring & Evaluation (M&E) Volunteer who will play a key role in assessing and improving our community programs.

Who We Are Looking For:

- A young professional with a strong commitment to community development.
- Hold a Master's degree in Monitoring & Evaluation and a Bachelor's degree in Data Science.
- Be familiar with the Tooro region, its culture, and language.
- Be able to ride a motorcycle for fieldwork in remote communities.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement Monitoring & Evaluation frameworks for RIDE AFRICA's programs.
- Collect, analyze, and interpret data to assess program effectiveness.
- Work closely with local communities to ensure inclusive and participatory evaluations.
- Train staff and partners in M&E best practices and data-driven decision-making.
- Conduct field visits on a motorcycle to monitor project progress and community impact.

Why Volunteer with RIDE AFRICA?

Make a real impact in improving lives in rural Uganda.

Experience the beauty of Tooro, Uganda's Tourism Capital, home to the Rwenzori Mountains, crater lakes, and rich cultural heritage.

Work with a dynamic team of change-makers and grassroots leaders.
